

Pei-Hui Hsu is an associated professor in the Accounting and Finance department at the California State University East Bay where she has been a faculty member since 2013. She is the co-coordinator of MS in Accountancy program. Dr. Hsu completed her Ph.D. at the University of Oregon. Her research interests lie in the area of financial reporting, ranging from earnings management to corporate governance.